NOTICE

Stafford County treats all applications and applicants equally. The County does not discriminate against religion, or on the basis of race, sex, age, national origin, or disability, in its planning, permitting, utilities, and land use processes.

Under the laws of the United States and the Commonwealth of Virginia, no government may discriminate against any religion or on the basis of race, sex, age, national origin, or disability, in its planning, permitting, utilities, and land use processes.

Under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act (“RLUIPA”), no government may apply its zoning or land use laws, or its policies and procedures in a manner that unjustifiably imposes a substantial burden on the religious exercise of a person, assembly, or institution.

RLUIPA also provides that no government may apply its zoning or land use laws in a manner that treats a religious assembly or institution on unequal terms with a non-religious institution or assembly.

Finally, RLUIPA provides that no government may impose or implement a land use regulation in a manner that discriminates against a religious assembly or institution.

Stafford County does not discriminate in its planning, permitting, utilities, and land use processes, practices, and policies. Stafford County treats all applications and applicants equally.

Sec 28-351. Grant of Special Exceptions.

- (a) The Board of Zoning Appeals may grant special exceptions under this chapter upon finding that the use will not be detrimental to the character and development of adjacent land and will be in harmony with the purpose and intent of this chapter.
- (b) An application for a special exception shall be submitted to the Zoning Administrator, who shall forward the same, along with such information that may be necessary, to the Board of Zoning Appeals.
- (c) No special exception shall be granted, except after notice and hearings provided in Section 15.2-2204 of the Code of Virginia.
- (d) If the Board of Zoning Appeals shall find that the use for which a special exception is sought shall be in accord with the following standards, it may grant the exception, provided that all other provisions law shall be complied with:
 - (1) The use shall not tend to change the character and established pattern of development of the surrounding area;
 - (2) The use shall be in harmony with the uses permitted by right under a zoning permit in the zoning district and shall not affect adversely the use of neighboring properties;
 - (3) The location and height of buildings, the location, nature and height of walls and fences and the nature and extent of landscaping on the site shall be such that the use will not hinder or discourage the appropriate development and use of adjacent land and buildings or impair the value thereof;
 - (4) The use shall not affect the health or safety of persons residing or working in the neighborhood of the proposed use;
 - (5) The use shall not be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to property or to improvements to the neighborhood;
 - (6) The use shall be in accord with the purpose of this chapter and the comprehensive plan for the county.
- (e) Any use, building or activity legally in existence on the effective date of this chapter, shall not require a special exception, so long as such existing use, building or activity is not expanded or enlarged.

Should an application for a special exception be denied, at least one year shall elapse before another application of the same use on the same land is considered. The one year shall be counted from the date of denial.

- (f) Should an application for a special exception be approved, unlike an approval for a variance, the special exception does not “run with the land.”
- (g) The Board of Zoning Appeals may require conditions for special exception approval. These conditions must be met before the special exception becomes effective unless County staff allows provisional activation of the special exception.
